

Line Trace and Copy

Trace lines carefully.

A rectangular box containing a tracing exercise. It features a solid black horizontal line at the top and another at the bottom. Between these lines is a series of seven connected diamond shapes formed by dashed lines.

Draw the same line as above by yourself.

A large rectangular box for independent drawing. It contains two solid black horizontal lines, one near the top and one near the bottom, defining the space for the child to draw.
