

Line Trace and Copy

Draw the same line as above by yourself.

A rectangular box for independent drawing. It contains two solid black horizontal lines, one at the top and one at the bottom, defining a space for the child to draw the teardrop pattern.
